Review: This book was really good. It had such a good story line that made you confused but then it all made sense. I responded to the characters in this book because they were truly amazing, Amy Dunne (the main character) really made the book better by her skills to run away and not be found, she must have studied how to go missing. I was honestly shocked that i did not give up while reading because there was so much going on. I am glad i stuck to it because it turned out to be a crazy good story. This book should be recommended for older people due to the fact that it contains some crazy things. I personally did not relate to any of the characters in this book because i could never imagine setting up a murder scene for myself just so I can runaway. I would've just left like it was a normal day and changed my phone number and had no trace of myself. The reason i picked this book was because my mom told me it was amazing and crazy all in one, and trust me she was right! I gave this book 5 stars because it deserved 5 stars. This book had so many emotional turns that made it worth reading. I would most definitely consider this the best book I have read this year.
