Writing: Words in Action

- Look back at "Lending a Hand to End Poverty" (pages 60–61). Think about how poverty affects your own community. What solution would you propose to help alleviate poverty in your area? Write a letter to the editor of your local newspaper, describing the problem and offering a solution. Use at least two details from the passage and three unit words.
- "The greatest good you can do for another is not just to share your riches but to reveal to him his own."—attributed to Benjamin Disraeli
Today, various individuals and organizations make small loans, or microloans, to people around the world, enabling them to better their lives by creating or maintaining their own businesses. How does the concept of the "microloan" relate to the quotation above? Do you agree that small loans can encourage people to become more self-sufficient, or do you think such loans can make people more dependent? In a brief essay, support your opinion using specific examples, observations, and the reading (pages 60–61). Write at least three paragraphs, and use three or more words from this unit.
