

Ms. Reid asked "Have you ever heard of mayor Henry Cisnerous?"

Yes, I have heard of him, I replied

Henry G. Cisnerous was the first hispanic mayor of a large American city

Cisnerous was born in San Antonio Texas, in June 11 1947

Years ago, Cisnerous decided to work in the field of government, mapped out plans to study in Washington, D.C.

Cisnerous returned to San Antonio in 1974 soon he was running for mayor.

He stepped into the mayor's office on April 4 1981.

Yesterday, I stopped at Melrose Public Library.

I chose a book about Cisnerous by Naurice Roberts.

Make the errors in each and explain each grammar, punctuation, spelling and grammar and usage.

Quiz correct the errors in the paragraph.

Henry Cisneros planned many wonderful things for San Antonio. He brought jobs and businesses to his city. He even helped people get along with each other. Cisnerous is thought of as a great mayor and many people were very proud of him.