

The Sun and Her Flowers by Rupi Kaur

This novel is her second collection of poetry based on five different sections called the wilting, falling, rooting, rising and blooming. It is based on all of these types of loves and their stories.

I chose to get The Sun and Her Flowers because I adored her other novel and wanted to read the second one as well. I had never heard of the author before she had put out these novels. However, after she did I absolutely loved her and her work. I then followed her on social media and found out that Rupi Kaur is also a motivational speaker and does a lot positive influencing to women and younger girls especially. Overall, I absolutely loved reading this novel. Compared to her last book which I also loved, I enjoyed reading this one even more. There was so much detail and work put into each section and it kept me wanting to read even more. For these reasons I gave this book a five out of five star rating. I was not at all surprised that I enjoyed The Sun and Her Flowers because I really like the authors work and I am looking forward to the next novel that she is going to put out.
